

Assumptions

1. The enrollment of the customer requires the two steps
 1. Registration of the user
 2. Payment of the user
2. Registration involves entering the following data (each field has proper validation)
 1. Name of the user
 2. Age of the user
 3. Gender of the user
3. User can also pay fees later.
4. For fee payment , payment dialog box is displayed(using the mock payment function) or can cancel and pay later.
5. The user that are unpaid can pay later using the unpaid user table and clicking the pay button.
6. Payment dialog box contains three fields:
 - 1.The debit card info(Dummy input container)(Need to be filled with any value to proceed)
 - 2.The amount to be paid (Input field)(Value entered should be 500)
 3. The choice of batch during the payment.